told the mayor my tale of woe He said to jail I'd have to go You lives a girl in our town The prettiest one for miles a-round With took miss Su - sie to a ball And there she cap - ti - va - ted all A bout the mid - dle of the night That dan - dy's friends got up a fight While ought to hear them dan - dy'scrow And so did Su - sie Brown. glossy curls a hang - ing down And her name is Su - sie Brown.

 del - i - cate youth just six foot tall Fell in love with Su - sie Brown.
 in the fuss turned of the light And in - sult - ed Su - sie Brown.

So now I'm out of jail a - gain My heart is free from care or pain A
 And eve - ry day up - on the street Me and Su - sie's sure to meet She But when he ask'd the girl to dance He soon found out he'd got no chance For The po - lice came to stop the muss In - stead of that it made things worse For that bach - e - lor I shall re - main Since I lost my Su - sie Brown.

 dress - es gay and looks so sweet Does pret - ty Su - sie Brown.
 down the room I did ad - vance To waltz with Su - sie Brown.
 dan - dy chap the six foot cuss Run - away with Su - sie Brown.
